

Student Life

MScAC Orientation Week

David Goh — MScAC (Applied Math) 2025–2026

A bit about me

- Applied Math Concentration, MScAC 2025–2026
- Lived in Singapore and the US
- Undergraduate Major: Mathematics
- Courses Taken: Machine Learning (CSC2515), Deep Learning Theory (MAT1510), Financial Mathematics (MAT1856), Computational Social Science (CSC2552)
- MScAC Internship: Horizon3 AI Labs, Unilever PLC

Reach out for questions about any of the above experiences at daveed@cs.toronto.edu

Where do you live?

Where in the GTA are you?

Scan the map
Add your pin

Weekends in Toronto

Explore

Parks: High Park, Trinity
Bellwoods, Tommy
Thompson

Waterfront: CN Tower,
Toronto Islands

Neighbourhoods:
Kensington, Chinatown,
Queen Street West

Museums: Royal Ontario
Museum, Art Gallery of Ontario

Get outside

Toronto Islands
Niagara Falls
Scarborough Bluffs
Blue Mountain Ski Resort*
Earl Bales*

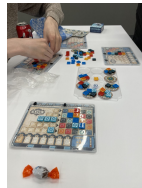

Useful cards

PRESTO Toronto Public
Library (incl. Free Attractions)
Student ID (Free ROM
Access, Discounts @ Metro)

Fun things the 2025–2026 cohort did

Hangouts	Mixers + meals	Outings
Weekly-ish	Monthly-ish	Every few months
Board game nights	Job Hunt Prep Sessions	Winter ski trip
Snacks	Machine Learning	Fall nature hike
	Themed Trivia Night
Non-alcoholic Drinks	Lunar New Year, Christmas Celebrations	Bouldering
	Watch parties	Nearby Conferences

Hangouts

Sander's board game nights are our longest-standing tradition.

Themed mixers

A range of events: educational, cultural, watch parties etc.

Outings

Bigger experiences that require more planning and coordination. Kudos to Tyler Biswurm for these.

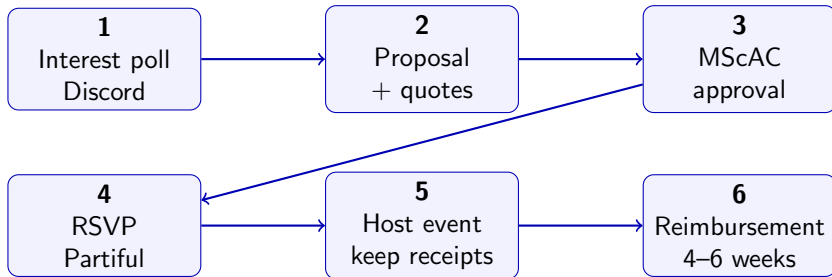

MScAC Supports Events Through The Student Initiative Fund

- Open to the cohort
- Clear benefit to the cohort
- Realistic plan and budget
- No alcohol or gambling

Guidelines

How it works

Resources

Proposal template

Sample proposals

Quote sheets

What would you run?

Pigeonhole Live

Submit and vote on ideas.

Student initiatives can make all the difference. Drop me a Discord DM to partner on an event!